

Try something new - become a trustee with Rathbone!

Rathbone is a local charity based in West Norwood. It supports children, adults and young people with learning disabilities and autism; helping and encouraging them to live independently and well, to enjoy life and to try new things.

The Trustees want to strengthen and diversify our current board and welcome interest from would-be trustees from diverse backgrounds, ages and cultures. We are looking for people who want to make a positive difference within their community, who can bring different ideas and strengths to help us in our work.

We are looking for people with:

- Lived experience of delivering or receiving youth work or adult social care;
- Lived experience of being a family member/carer of someone with autism or a learning disability;
- People with charity finance experience/qualifications;
- People with charity fundraising experience/qualifications;
- People with charity legal experience/qualifications;
- People with strategy and project management skills/experience/qualifications;
- Any other experience/skills/qualifications which you feel might be relevant to the delivery of our work.

To apply: If you are interested, please send an up to date CV with a covering letter/email explaining why you want to volunteer for Rathbone, what you have to offer and what you would like to gain from the experience to: a.preston@rathbonesociety.org.uk

Find out more: If you would like to have an initial chat to find out more, please let us know using the same email address and we will be in touch: a.preston@rathbonesociety.org.uk
